NOTE :—Applications not supported by the above particulars are liable to be rejected.

5. Testimonials.—Applications should be accompanied by two testimonials of character by Gazetted Officers or Magistrates who are not related to the applicant. A Scheduled Castes or a Scheduled Tribes candidate should produce a certificate in original that he belongs to one of the Scheduled Castes or Scheduled Tribes (mentioning the Caste or Tribe) from the District Magistrate or Sub-Divisional Officer of the place in which his parent (or surviving parent) ordinarily reside on the date of his application or if both his parents are dead, of the place in which he himself ordinarily resides otherwise than for the purpose of his own education. The selected candidates shall, however, before appointment, be required to produce one certificate of character duly attested by a District Magistrate or a Sub-Divisional Officer or their superior officers.

6. Last date of applications.—All applications must reach the office of the Comptroller & Auditor General of India, New Delhi, not later than the date specified in the advertisement. Applications received after the date will not be considered.

7. Interviews.—Candidates shall have to appear before a Selection Board for interview at their own expense. The centres of interviews will be intimated later on. In the case of Scheduled Castes/Scheduled Tribes candidate single III Class rail fare to and fro by the shortest route will be paid.

8. Period of Training.—The period of probation will normally be three years. During the period of probation they shall have to undergo a regular training at such place and in such manner as may be prescribed. They may also be assigned regular duties during the period.

9. Departmental Examinations and Confirmation.—The following general instructions have been laid down to regulate the examination and confirmation of the probationers.

(a) The candidate shall have to pass separate two departmental examinations known as Part I and Part II in the particular branch (Civil or Defence), to which he has been allotted, within the period of probation. Not more than two chances will be allowed for passing Part I of the examination and three chances for passing both the parts. He shall be under an obligation to take every S.A.S. Examination held after 10 months after his appointment on probation.

(b) He shall also have to pass tests in Hindi and the Regional Language of the State to which he is allotted (Standards to be prescribed later on). Normally he shall have to pass these tests by the time he appears in Part II of the S.A.S. Examination. The Comptroller & Auditor General may, however, if he considers that there are special circumstances justifying the concession, allow him at his discretion to appear in Part II of the S.A.S. Examination before passing these language tests. He shall however, have to pass all these tests within the period of probation.

(c) Candidates allotted to Civil Offices shall also have to take an examination known as "Revenue Audit Examination" alongwith Part II of the S.A.S. Examination.

(d) If a candidate is not able to pass the examinations mentioned above, within the period of probation or if it becomes evident earlier, that he will not be able to pass the examination within the prescribed period he will become liable to lose his appointment. He should also clearly understand that his appointment is purely temporary on trial basis and his services may be terminated at any time without prior notice if he be found lacking in aptitude or if his conduct be deemed unsatisfactory in any respect.

(e) On satisfactory completion of probation, he will be eligible for confirmation subject to availability of permanent vacancies. His confirmation is also subject to his being considered fit in all respects for permanent retention in the service. His confirmation in the S.A.S. Cadre will not, however, give him any special claim to Seniority which will be governed by the orders issued by the Comptroller & Auditor General of India from time to time.

10. Posting.—The probationers are recruited mainly for the various offices shown in the advertisement, the final allotment to be made by the Comptroller & Auditor General of India. A candidate will normally be required to serve in the circle of Accounts Office to which he is posted. However, he is liable to be posted in public interest to any other office throughout India.

A probationer earmarked for the Organisation of Director of Audit Defence Services is liable to be transferred to any subordinate office under his control, if it is necessary in the public interest.

11. All probationers at the time of appointment will be required to give an undertaking in writing to the effect that during the period of their probation they will neither apply for any appointment elsewhere nor sit for any examination to qualify for other appointments.

12. Scales of Pay.—The probationers will be allowed pay at the rate of Rs. 270 p.m. plus Dearness and other allowances as may be fixed by the Government of India from time to time. They will be eligible for pay at the rate of Rs. 285/- p.m. on their passing in full Part I of the S.A.S. Examination, on their passing full Part II of the S.A.S. Examination Revenue Audit Exam and the Hindi and Regional Languages test they will be allowed pay at the rate of Rs. 300/- p.m. The increments from the rate of Rs. 300 onwards in the scale of Rs. 270-15-435-EB-20-575 will be regulated according to the normal rules.

NOTE.—On posting to an Accounts and Audit Office, either for training or otherwise the Heads of Department in relation to that office will exercise all powers in the same way, as he would have done had the appointment been ab initio made by him.
